Significant Events:

- We observed an uptick in vehicle crashes in November with five. All were property damage only.
- Three of the four assault incidents have been cleared with an arrest, and the fourth has made plans to turn their self in, in the near future.
- Our recruit officer will be graduating the NCCPD Academy on December 29th. The officer will have to complete a field training program which lasts several weeks starting in January. The department continues to make attempts to improve our staffing numbers.
